

UNIT 6

Writing Task: Describe your favorite room

Worksheet 1: PRE-WRITING

Exercise 1

Put the words from the box in the correct column. Some can go with more than one room.

1. have dinner	2. sofa	3. stationery	4. wash up
5. read the newspaper	6. carpets	7. sleep	8. bed
9. prepare food	10. play computer games	11. read books	12. cooker
13. workspace	14. chop vegetables	15. wardrobe	16. television
17. play with your brothers	18. bedside table	19. chairs	20. cook dinner
21. spend time with family	22. watch television	23. entertain guests	24. make cakes
25. coffee table	26. pictures	27. pots and pans	28. armchair
29. kitchen table	30. lamps	31. desk lamp	32. ornaments
33. dishwasher	34. computer	35. bookcase	36. table mats
37. do your homework	38. cupboard	39. have lunch	40. dining table
41. printer	42. mirror	43. dressing table	44. fridge
45. shelves	46. sink	47. desk	48. relax

things in a room	things you do in the room
	living room dining room kitchen study bedroom

Exercise 2

Choose and underline one of the rooms from the table in Exercise 1. Circle the things that you have and do in this room in your house, and add more.

Exercise 3

Choose the two synonyms and one antonym for each of the four words on the left.

1. big	large	relaxing	huge
2. comfortable	beautiful	new	ancient
3. pretty	uncomfortable	soft	attractive
4. old	small	aged	ugly

UNIT 6

Worksheet 2: PRACTICE

Exercise 1: Sentence building 1

Choose the correct middle and end for each sentence.

1. The beach is a good place it has see all my cousins there.
2. I like my university because I can a good GPS and in-car computer system.
3. This car is my favourite because it is several nice parks.
4. In my city for taking a great place to study medicine.
5. I like going to visit my aunt because there are a nice walk in the evening.

Exercise 2: Sentence building 2

Match the nouns to the relative pronouns.

a thing	a person's	a person	a place
---------	------------	----------	---------

who _____ which _____ where _____ whose _____

Use the relative pronouns to join the sentences.

1. There is a very old table in the dining room. It used to be in my grandmother's house.
.....
2. We have a big, comfortable living room. I like spending time with my family there.
.....
3. The person in the photo is my older brother. He is at university in London.
.....
4. That's the neighbour I told you about. His uncle is a doctor.
.....

Exercise 3: Paragraph organization

What is the main topic of the three paragraphs below?

Number the paragraphs in order. A _____ B _____ C _____

Circle the relative pronouns. Underline the present and past participles.

A I like this place the best because it is very good for concentrating. Lots of students are there all day, revising for their exams, but it is always quiet and it is a good place to work. In fact, this is the place where I study the best. I think I am the student who goes there the most!	B I go to a very good university which has lots of excellent facilities. However, my favorite place is the library. First, I will tell you what the library looks like, and then I will tell you why I like it.	C The library is huge and light. There are many books, organized on high wooden bookshelves, and it has lots of large tables for studying at. There are big windows which look out onto the university gardens. There is a café where you can buy nice coffee and cakes.
---	---	--

Which paragraph is missing from the essay?

Put these sentences in order to make the missing paragraph.

- I don't know what I would do without it!
- However, as you can see, I especially love the library.
- To sum up, I love my university and everything there.

